Space Assignments: Space locations will be assigned by the Committee. Food Vendors will be notified of their location by email the week of the event.

General Conditions: Food Vendors are responsible for all of their equipment. There is no electricity provided. If you have a generator, you're encouraged to use it. Do not park in areas that are blocked off for other events or your vehicle will be towed at your expense. Food Vendor fees must be paid to be assigned a location.

Food Handling Safety Certification: The City of Boonville has a food handling training mandate for temporary food establishments. Food vendors may be inspected by Cooper County Public Health and must have documented proof that they meet certification requirements. For information, visit www.coopercountypublichealth.com or call CCPH at 660.882.2626.

City of Boonville Business License: All participants are required by the City of Boonville to have a Business License. For information and forms to record and pay any applicable sales tax, refer to the City's website at <https://boonvillemo.org/forms/>.

Cancellations: Cancellations must be made in writing and received at the Chamber office 7 days prior to the event (Heritage Days—June 17, 2023; Sippin' Strollin' Rockin' & Rollin'—September 16, 2023)

Sponsors: Heritage Days is sponsored by the Boonville Area Chamber of Commerce. Sippin' Strollin' Rockin' & Rollin' is cosponsored by the Boonville Area Chamber of Commerce and the Boonslick Regional Library—Cooper County Branch. The event sponsors are not responsible for injuries, damages, and/or liabilities. The events are “rain or shine” events and Food Vendor fees will not be reimbursed. The sponsors reserve the right to return an application and accompanying fee if they deem a Food Vendor is inappropriate for the event(s) or is a duplication of food offerings from an application received and accepted prior to your submission.
